Our school was officially named on June 10, 2014. As you may know Louise Arbour is president and chief executive officer of the International Crisis Group, has served as UN high commissioner for human rights and has been a justice of the Supreme Court of Canada among numerous other accomplishments. We are proud to have such an admirable namesake. French Immersion is an area of significant growth. Second language learning cultivates an appreciation for diversity; often an enhanced understanding of global issues is also nurtured. We are looking forward to building a strong French Immersion community within our school and beyond.

509 Waterloo St, London, ON N6B 2P8, Canada

London Central Secondary School is located at the corner of Dufferin Avenue and Waterloo Street in downtown London. Being the oldest school in the city, Central has a history that can be traced back to a Grammar School of 1826-1926 near the forks of the Thames River. In 1922, the new London Central Collegiate Institute was officially opened. It was enlarged in 1962 and again in 1968. Central celebrated its centennial in 1977. Construction of an addition including new weight room, elevator and conference room was completed in August 1993. Further extensive renovations took place during 1995-1996 which fully modernized Central's building, made it fully wheelchair accessible and incorporated a school-wide computer network for students. In addition to a full selection of academic courses, Central is also the site of the Forest City special education program.

St. Mary School is the home of the Choir and Orchestra Program for the London District Catholic School Board. The school draws children from across the district and our students enter at the Grade 5 level, remaining at St. Mary School until the end of their Grade 8 year. The Choir and Orchestra Program was established in 1967 and was originally housed at St. Peter School in downtown London. St. Mary is very proud to continue on with the original mandate of the program: to train students to be active members of their Catholic parishes throughout our District, serving leaders in music ministry. Because of this our program is to be accessible to all students of our school district entering Grade 5, based on their ability to demonstrate an aptitude in vocal music and their strengths in academics and learning skills.
